No 101. C. 16 Cases.

Sir

I have the honor to state that one Bapalur Nanjunda was placed before this court by the Devarhalli Sub Police for trial on 10th July 1900 on a charge of having committed the offence of grievous hurt with a dangerous weapon, punishable under section 326 I.P.C. As the accused when brought to court, talked incoherently and appeared to be of unsound mind, he was sent for examination to the Officer in charge of the Lunatic Asylum.

at Bauplore. The Assistant Surgeon in charge of the Asylum kept the accused under observa tion for over a month and forwarded a certificate declaring him to be a lunatic. Being examined by this Court to-day, the Assistant Surgeon has deposed that the accused is suffering from acute dementia, that he seldom speaks, that he is always dull, stupid and inactive, that his brain is weak and deranged and that he is incapable of understanding things correctly.

2. From the Assistant

Criminal Lunatic Nunjunda appears to be perfectly sane. He is reported to be of sound mind since January last. He may be discharged without fear of injury either unto himself or others.

None of the other lunatics civil or criminal is fit to be discharged.

We would again invite the Government to arrange for a separate place, distant from the city, for lepers. Till another structure can be built, we would recommend a spot near or in the Magadi camp for the purpose.
